1. Background on the establishment for IHSP-SA

The Institute of Human Settlement Practitioners South Africa (IHSP-SA) a not-for-profit voluntary professional association registered in 2016 to lead the professionalisation of the Human Settlements sector in South Africa through promoting capable and ethical workforce within the human settlement sector in the country, and advancing interests of its members who are students in the housing and human settlement field, graduates, lecturers and those who already work in the housing and human settlement industry (public, private, NGOs) in South Africa. For more information about IHSP-SA you may visit our website at <https://www.ihsp-sa.org>.

1.1 Aims and objectives of the IHSP-SA

- To provide a home for all housing and human settlements practitioners and professionals in the country;
- To promote higher standards of ethics, service and client care;
- To give voice for the membership of the sector;
- To advocate for professional management of housing and human settlements development;
- To promote continuous professional development;
- To foster close networking partnerships with national and international partners;
- To pave the way towards the establishment of a Professional Council for Human Settlement Practitioners.

2. Purpose of the Provincial Roadshows

- a) To promote and market the Institute and ongoing programmes while galvanizing maximum membership support and meaningful participation in its planned events and programmes.

- b) To facilitate membership registration in the Institute Database with a set target of 3000 that must be achieved by 24 November 2022, paving way for the recognition of the Institute by the South African Qualifications Authority.
- c) To identify like-minded organizations and persons who may be keen to foster medium and long term partnerships with the Institute towards the systematic professionalization of the Human Settlements in particular and Social Sciences in general, and ensure growth of a new corps of ethical and capable workforce for delivery of integrated and sustainable human settlements and attainment of SDGs in South Africa, the SADC, Africa and the Global South.

3. IHSP-SA Housing and Human Settlements International Seminar

IHSP-SA will be hosting an International Housing and Human Settlements Seminar on 24 November 2022, leading to a Business Breakfast on the 25 November 2022, in Bloemfontein, Free State Province. This event is for strategic resource mobilization and membership drive. It is aligned to one of the key strategic objectives of the Institute, embedded in its 5 years' strategic plan is to position the organization as a body representative of the voice and interests of practitioners and professionals. This Seminar will make discussions on certain themes and topics within housing and human settlements space at a global level.

3.1 Theme of the event

The International Camp is convened under the broad Theme:

HOUSING FOR ALL IN SOUTH AFRICA: FROM SEGREGATION TO INTEGRATION FOR SUSTAINABILITY IN A POST-APARTHEID STATE.

4. Targeted Stakeholders

The potential members of the Institute is as follows:
